My sister Kifue chases roosters that crow.

What do I do? What do I know?
My brother Katleho has a ball to throw.

What do I do? What do I know?
My cousin Kutloano plants seeds in a row.

What do I do? What do I know?
My cousin Kamohelo leans on her hoe.

What do I do? What do I know?
My aunt Keromang has a dress to sew.

What do I do? What do I know?
My uncle Khotso herds the cattle that low.

What do I do? What do I know?
Mama dries wheat when the wind does not blow.

What do I do? What do I know?
Papa rides a horse over mountains in snow.

What do I do? What do I know?
Grandpa’s slow donkey walks to and fro.

What do I do? What do I know?
Grandma sings songs till the fire burns low.

What do I do? What do I know?
You know how to say yes.
You know how to say no.

That’s what you do!
That’s what you know!
Everyone laughs when you put on a show.

Your work is to play. Your work is to grow.
