Tell It Again! Flip Book Introduction

This Tell It Again! Flip Book contains images that accompany the Tell It Again! Read-Aloud Anthology for The Human Body: Systems and Senses. The images are in sequential order. Each image is identified by its lesson number, read-aloud letter (A or B), and the number of the image within the particular read-aloud. For example, the first image in Read-Aloud 1A is numbered 1A-1. Once you have worked your way through the book to the last page, you will flip the entire book over to view the second half of the images.

Depending on your classroom configuration, you may need to have students sit closer to the flip book in order to see the images clearly.
acknowledgments

these materials are the result of the work, advice, and encouragement of numerous individuals over many years. some of those singled out here already know the depth of our gratitude; others may be surprised to find themselves thanked publicly for their generosity and encouragement for the sake of the enterprise alone. to helpers named and unnamed we are deeply grateful.

Contributors to Earlier Versions of These Materials

we would like to extend special recognition to Program Directors Matthew Davis and Susanne Wright who were instrumental to the early development of this program.

Schools

we are truly grateful to the teachers, students, and administration of the following schools for their willingness to field test these materials and for their invaluable advice: capital view elementary, challenge foundation academy (sf), community academy public charter school, lake lure classical academy, Sequoyah elementary school, south shore charter public school, Spartanburg charter school, steele elementary school, Thomas Jefferson classical academy, three sale elementary, west marion elementary.

and a special thanks to the ckla post coordinators, antonia henderson, vann biggs henderson, and susan smith, whose suggestions and day-to-day support to teachers using these materials in their classrooms was critical.
